Benjamin Franklin established the first circulating library in our country at Philadelphia in 1732, through the Junto Literary club. Each member of this club contributed $2 and 10 shillings yearly for library expenses. A fee was charged non-members for weekly book rentals and from this small beginning our great free library grew.

A choice bit of old-time printing, "A New England Almanac of 1829," has been given the library by Miss Frances Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rosewater gave over 100 volumes to the library before leaving for their eastern home.

Some of the famous people who were born in September are: Jane Adams, Phoebe Cary, Queen Elizabeth, Eugene Field, Henry George, Samuel Johnson, Marquis de Lafayette and John Marshall.

If the library has the book you want, drop a request for it in the book order box. One of Omaha's most advanced readers has requested "Ulysses" by James Joyce. This is a book that the library can not supply. It was printed in France, but not in French, and has been taken off the market.

The reference room is always well filled with men, women and children getting facts on every subject, and the files of the three daily papers and bound magazines are constantly in demand.

Popular books of the week are: "Gentle Julia," by Tarkington; "Black Gold," by Terhune; "O'Pioneers," by Cather; "Hinterland," by Hutchinson; "Ulysses," by Joyce; "The Story of Mankind," by Van Loon; "Easy Lessons in Psychoanalysis," by Freud; "Queen Victoria," by Strachey.

Freckles Disappear and Summer Tan Vanishes.

THE quest of beauty has been one of woman's privileges throughout the ages. It is not termed vanity, rather a worthy desire to take the most of one's natural endowments. Tan, freckles, roughness of the skin, fine lines and wrinkles are easily conquered if you make an appointment for one of the Mariello scientific treatments. Mariello Licensed Shop, 566 Brandeis Theater building, JA. 3460; Gray Beauty Shop, 1718 Douglas, AT. 4127; Herzberg Beauty Shop, 1519 Douglas, AT. 3763.

Interesting New Music Makes the First Weeks at School the Jolliest Ones You've Ever Known.

NEW songs at the sheet music department, A. Hospe & Co., 1513 Douglas. It's easy to get acquainted with the boys and girls at school if you've plenty of music to take the proper amount of joyousness into the occasion. None could continue to be aloof when there's a song like any one of those listed being played on the piano with the whole crowd joining in on the chorus:

Old Virginia Way.....30c
Down.....30c
Tomorrow.....30c
By the Riverside.....30c
My Buddy.....30c
She's Lovely.....30c

Let's Go Shopping with Polly

Magazines discuss the Flapper, and the mid-Victorians rap her. Even Satire paints in cute lights her fair claim before the footlights. Where of old a modest ballet was the rage.

But her teachers are more tender and the college deans defend her. As the frankest thing in all the vicinage. But to be a little coarser is to be a little wiser. In the human scale of femininity! Though she be as good or better and the Devil will not get her. Any easier than Miss Antiquity.

The Wise Mother Provides Plenty of Milk in the Menu for School Children.

SCHOOL days again! A nerve strain for the children, the first days of the school year—an adjusting of little bodies to concentrated thought after months' of laziness during the long days of summer. Alamito milk, perfectly pasteurized, suggests to the wise mother an important item for the children's menu, a safeguarding of health for the little school fellows, particularly those whom the doctors designate as "underfeds." Call Douglas 0409 and the Alamito delivery service will do the rest.

Persian print is decidedly popular, both in silks and cottons.

College Girls Find the Reversible Top Coats Quite to Their Fancy.

OKIN BROS., Conant Hotel building, Sixteenth and Harney, offer top coats for the college girls which fill their hearts with joy, so versatile are they. For class wear one appears in a gray corded, and in homespun with splashed threads of scarlet interwoven with the sober gray surface. But behold the same coat on Saturday afternoon at the football field—it has been reversed and the coat is entirely in keeping with the sports togs which go to make up the colorful appearance of the grandstand and field, a vivid scarlet blocked with black. Swaggy! These coats, in a varied selection of color, are $19.50, $25, $35 and $39.50.
